Call for Entries
Gallery East, Gallery West, and Metro Gallery
2015-2016 Season
Deadline: April 25, 2014 by 4 p.m.

The City of Reno is currently accepting proposals from artists and curators interested in exhibiting. Gallery locations include:

- Gallery East and Gallery West located in the McKinley Arts and Culture Center at 925 Riverside Drive, Reno, NV 89503

- Metro Gallery in the lobby of City Hall at 1 East First Street, Reno, NV 89501

Exhibitions are seven weeks in duration. All media will be considered for display; however, the unique aspects of each venue should be taken into account by applicants. Galleries East and West are best suited for two-dimensional work whereas the Metro Gallery can accommodate a variety of pieces. All spaces are programmed for the general public. The appropriateness and quality of proposals is determined by a Review Panel, whose recommendations are given to the Public Art Committee for final approval. Selected exhibitions will be promoted by postcard and online. Notification of results can be expected in early summer 2014. First exhibition opening for the gallery season will be February 1, 2015.

To be eligible, artists and curators must submit:
- Application Form, available from www.renoculture.com
- CD with 5 to 10 digital images formatted as .jpeg
  - Name files using last name, underscore, and the number corresponding to image list
    Example: Smith_01.jpeg
  - Dimensions cannot exceed 1200 pixels wide or 800 pixels high
  - Limit file size to less than 1mb per image
- Image list with title, medium, dimensions, and year of creation for each artwork
- Artist Statement
- Biography
- Résumé (no more than 2 pages in length)
- (Optional) Self-addressed stamped envelope for return of materials
