

Court Administrator Steve Tuttle Receives NACE Award

Reno Municipal Court Administrator was recognized by the Nevada Association of Court Executives this month. During his tenure as president of this professional group from 2013-2015, he led a significant recruitment effort, as well as reworking the groups bylaws. He received a space pen and a beautiful engraved glass award in recognition of his passion and time devoted to the improvement of court services statewide.

