Letter of Intent
Adrienne Feemster Cobb

To: Reno City Council Committee

October 6, 2022

The purpose of this communication is to express my wholehearted interest in the position of Reno City Council Ward 3. My extensive background in developing client and community relations in business and community leadership for more than two decades has given me a solid foundation for this significant leadership role.

Currently, I am a Sales Lead Consultant with TruGreen Limited Partnership corporately located in Memphis, Tennessee, remotely, contributing my expertise in direct consumer sales and assisting management with training and supervisory support. Additionally, I serve as a volunteer with the local NAACP Reno/Sparks branch 1112, and as Vice Chair of the Black Caucus of the Democratic Party of Washoe County. I find passion and personal fulfillment in assisting my clients and residents with building efforts, important issues, and resolving social concerns. Helping others is visceral for me. I was raised in a local community family that has been rooted in this very ward (3) for more than one hundred years and has a generational legacy of dedication to serving our beloved community. I aspire to contribute my part to this very meaningful legacy.

Given my extensive background in the positions I've held and my positioning to bridge relationships between professionals and residents in the very community I have been rooted in my entire life – the city of Reno, Ward 3, I am confident I will be successful in serving this appointment of Council Member. I also intend on running for this same role in 2024 to continue building progress for my dearest childhood neighborhood. The qualities I possess for the role of City Council Member are as follows:

- Community Engagement
- Team Building
- Vision
- Real Estate Development and Zoning
- Community Safety
- Budgeting

It is my success and my passion as a professional and community leader that I am most proud of, certain to guarantee my success that lends credence to my ability to be an outstanding City Council, Member. Please consider me in your final evaluation to appoint for this unique and important role.

Thank you for this valuable opportunity.

Respectfully,

Adrienne Feemster Cobb
