I am currently doing this, without this position, with leading the initiative to bring small businesses together to make Reno glow this holiday season. Let It Glow, is a project to help revitalize our city, support shopping small business and to bring all our districts and Reno businesses together for a common goal.

I know my love and determination to make Reno a better place to live for every person and business owner will prevail with or without this position, but it is an absolute honor to even be considered for this position to make a real change in my community.
