My public policy experience at the state and local levels across Nevada has given me the skills necessary to evaluate a problem, formulate a solution, and build broad coalitions to get things done. I believe I am well prepared to continue the progress the city has made and address the tough issues facing our residents to ensure Ward 3, and Reno, is a place where everyone can thrive. As a young Renoite, an officer in the Nevada Army National Guard, and a former member of the Reno Access Advisory Committee, I would be honored to continue my public service on behalf of Nevadans in this role.
