SER0058456	Service Request - Zoning Issues with a BusinessSER0058456	Today, July 22, 2024, yet AGAIN another car is parked, blocking the sidewalk when I am trying to walk my dog and get my mail. My kids also have to be directed into the busy street where it is dangerous for them to be walking. This is another example of the problems caused by the psychiatric residential treatment facility located at 2840 Sandestin Drive. Additionally, it is interesting to me that the person driving this black Jeep with handicap license plates - this is the SAME WORKER WHO IS WALKING PATIENTS THROUGH THE NEIGHBORHOOD. I filed a complaint regarding patients walking in the neighborhood last week. If this driver is indeed handicapped and needs handicap license plates, how is she capable of walking steep, uphill streets in this neighborhood with the patients of this business? I'd love for the City of Reno, Alex Woodley, to reach out to Dharmendra Goyal, owner of this facility, to tell his workers NOT TO BLOCK OUR NEIGHBORHOOD SIDEWALKS. I've had to file numerous complaints regarding this issue and it seems nothing is being done. As the neighbor who has to deal with this business EVERY DAY - and all of the problems that come along with it - I am truly beginning to feel ignored and disregarded by the City of Reno. This business is a KNOWN problem. What is being done to mitigate the impact on residents in the neighborhood?	2840 Sandestin Dr, Reno, NV 89523	Closed	Code Enforcement	2024-07-22 14:28:26	5

SER0058468	Service Request - Zoning Issues with a BusinessSER0058468	Today, July 22, 2024, there was a REMSA and Reno Fire (Engine 11) response to 2840 Sandestin Dr. at 3:03 p.m. - to the psychiatric residential treatment facility. A large, male patient was removed in the REMSA unit. Several Reno Fire personnel responded as did REMSA. There were at least six responders on this one call. Can someone now tell me that is A-OK for these patients to be out, walking the neighborhood? Will someone in the neighborhood have to be hurt or will a patient have to hurt themselves before someone takes these complaints against this business seriously? Additionally, REMSA is using the driveway of 2860 Sandestin Dr. to do an illegal U-Turn. SER0058610	Service Request - Homeless ConcernsSER0058610	Hello, along Peavine Road and on parcel 082-083-07 there are multiple homeless encampments. They have tons of trash strewn about and one of our biggest concern is that we can see that they have bon fires at night time, which could spark a wildfire. I called Washoe County and they said that this is a City of Reno road which code enforcement, Reno PD, and the Clean and Safe Team would be able to address. Thank you very much. Is there anything that surrounding residents can do to help prevent people from camping here, leaving waste, and creating fires?		Closed	Code Enforcement	2024-07-23 13:50:11	4
